The RVA Theatre Card is issued by the member companies of the RVA Theatre Alliance in recognition of the work and dedication of our theatre professionals. Eligibility is certified by the sponsoring company where you have worked within the past year and the card is good for one year from the date of issue. For discounted tickets, please check with the member company when making reservations (Two tickets at a time may be purchased using the card) about their individual policies and be prepared to present card at the box office along with a photo ID. Your card is not to be loaned to or used by anyone but yourself. By signing this application you agree to the previous provisions.
