MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

RVA Theatre Alliance membership is open to any theatrical performing arts organization that meets the following criteria: 1) The production company is based in the Richmond area, 2) has obtained a local business license, and 3) pays its performers.

Dues entitle your production company to attend all Alliance functions, participate in meetings, to cast one vote per Member Company, and to enjoy the privileges and responsibilities as outlined in the Bylaws and regulations and rules of RVA Theatre Alliance.

Membership is also available to Associates as defined in the Bylaws, and includes individuals, businesses or groups affiliated with the theatre performing arts industry in the Richmond area, or that provide talent, technical, or professional services to the performing arts industry. Associates will receive information regarding the Alliance, its member companies, and may participate in meetings and events but shall not vote.

Annual Dues in any category cover membership for one calendar year and shall not be prorated.
